

Manufacture of Iron in Monongalia County, Virginia.

It is not generally known that the manufacture of iron is so extensively carried on in the county of Monongalia. The resources of our county for its manufacture are exhaustless, and all we want is a proper application of capital and labor to fully develop them. We have in this county five furnaces, which are in operation the greater part of the year, namely: "Rock Forge," on Decker's Creek, and owned by Mr. James Kinsley; "Clinton Furnace," formerly owned by Mr. George Hardman, and now the property of Mr. Robert Crangle; "Woodstock," on the property known as "Laurier Iron Works," owned by Dr. Meredith Clynar late of New York City;—Monongalia Star.

MARRIED.

In Frederickburg, Dec. 23rd, by the Rev. John C. Rowe, Mr. JOSEPH B. ROBINSON, of Stafford county, and Miss MARY C. FUGETT, of Frederickburg.

On the 23rd instant, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. A. R. Flippo, the Rev. GEO. W. EVE, to Miss MARTHA STREET, all of Frederickburg.

On Thursday evening, 23rd inst., by the Rev. Wm. F. Broadus, D. D., WM. T. WILTSHIRE, esq., to Miss MARTHA, daughter of William Sayle, dec'd., all of Spotsylvania county.

On the same day, by the same, GEORGE W. HERRINGTON, esq., to Miss BETTIE E., daughter of Thomas L. Daniel, dec'd., all of Frederickburg.

On the 24th instant, by the Rev. B. P. Warwick, Mr. THOMAS J. ALBOP, of Alabama, and Miss SARAH A. PROCTOR, of Spotsylvania county.

On fourth day, the 22nd, by friends ceremony, ROBERT M. STABLER, of Montgomery county, Md., and HANNAH B. TAYLOR, of Loudoun county, Va.

At the residence of Capt. Skilman, in Loudoun county, on the 21st of December, JAMES A. MOXLEY, to MARY C. HALL, all of Loudoun county.

DIED.

On Monday, the 18th day of December, near Belmont, Loudoun county, Va., Mrs. MARY E. FOWLER, aged 31 years. The deceased, was at the time of her death, and for several years past, a consistent member of the Methodist Church. She leaves a large circle of friends to mourn their loss—yet they mourn not as those who mourn without hope. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

In Frederickburg, on Monday evening, the 20th instant, FRANCES ELIZABETH, wife of Mr. Wm. Burke, aged 31 years and 1 month.

COMMERCIAL.

Alexandria Market, December 27.
There were no transactions reported on 'Change yesterday, and we omit quotations.—The market was very quiet, and the receipts light. Until after the holidays we cannot expect any activity in the grain market, as there will be very little coming to market, work on the farms being suspended. Small wheat lots white wheat were sold yesterday off 'Change at 125c.

The Markets.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 27.—Flour is extremely dull, and quotations nominal. Wheat is firm; white 135c/140c. Corn is quiet; yellow 71c/72c; white 69c/70c. Provisions are unchanged.—Whiskey is very dull at 24c.

New York, Dec. 27.—Flour is unchanged; sales of 5,000 bbls. State $4.25; Ohio $3.35; $5.50; Southern $5.50. Wheat is quiet; sales of 1,000 bushels mixed Illinois at 110c; Kentucky white 155c; Southern red 135c; white 135c/150c. Corn is heavy; sales of 12,000 bushels mixed 77c; new white 74c/75c; new yellow 74c/75c. Pork is heavy; new mess $18.50; 12 lb. prime $13.75. Lard is firm at 14c/14c. Whiskey is sold at 24c/25c. Stocks are higher. Mo. 6's 90.

By reference to the table of domestic exports, made up to 30th June last, and for the two previous years of 1886 and 1887, taken from the New York Journal of Commerce, it appears that the value of the Cotton crop exported in 1886, was $128,000,000; 1887, $131,000,000; 1888, $131,000,000. Tobacco, 1886, 12 millions; 1887, 20 millions; 1888, 17 millions. Wheat, 1886, 15 millions; 1887, 24 millions; 1888, 34 millions. Corn, 1886, 75 millions; 1887, 64 millions; 1888, 34 millions. Flour, 1886, 24 millions; 1887, 26 millions; 1888, 194 millions. The decline in the value of the exports of Wheat, Corn, and Flour, between 1887 and 1888, is 24 millions of dollars! The exports of Cattle were, in 1886, $183,743; 1887, $144,840; 1888, $1,238,769. The export of hides has increased from $101,174 in 1886, to $624,867 in 1887, and $757,753 in 1888. The exports of Pork in 1886, was $5,099,940; while in 1887, $2,805,867, and in 1888, $2,852,942.—Hams and Bacon, 1886, $3,863,348; 1887, $4,511,442; 1888, $1,557,423.

DRIFT FACT.—The receipts of dried apples and peaches at Cincinnati last week, reached 24,000 bushels, making since the 1st of September 480,000 bushels, against 46,517 for the entire season last year. The Cincinnati Price Current, of Wednesday, says:

The demand, notwithstanding, continues good, and $2 per bushel is paid for apples, freely on arrival, and $3.50 for peaches, and we understand one house has sold 4,000 bush. apples and peaches to arrive.

From the Pacific Coast.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 25.—The mails by the Quaker City have come to hand. The trip has occupied eighteen days, equivalent to twenty-three or twenty-four days to New York, which is no shorter than the Panama route. The steamer Golden Gate for Panama, had on board 324 passengers, nearly all en route for New York.

The steamer Hermann, which arrived at San Francisco on the 27th ult., was seized almost immediately afterward and libelled for the non-payment of wages due to her crew. It was believed that other creditors of the vessel would also cause attachments to be issued, so that it is extremely doubtful whether she ever again reaches New York as the property of the present owners.

Experiments were about to be made in the shipment of specie by the Tebanutep route. The telegraph connecting San Francisco with Genoa, in Utah Territory, had been completed. It was understood in California that Gen. Harney would not winter in the West.

Accounts from the Sandwich Islands report that one hundred and seventy whalers in all, had arrived. Many of the ships had been much damaged by collision with the ice. The Quaker City reports that the frigate Merrimack had sailed from Acapulco on a cruise.

Conviction of Shuster alias Hand.
Jacob Shuster alias Tom Hand, who has spent some thirty years of his life in prison, was again convicted in Philadelphia, on Friday last. He was charged with forging a bank note plate of the Bank of Delaware county, Pa., and a $10 note on the same institution. The Inquirer says:

"Among the number who closely watched the progress of the trial, were three daughters of the defendant. They were gentle, intelligent looking ladies, and demeaned themselves with marked dignity and respect towards the court. During the last stage of the trial they were near their father, who was confined in the dock, as if to protect him from the power of the evidence of guilt which seemed to overwhelm him. When the jury returned to court they were near him, and with tearful eyes and palpitating hearts waited the result of the verdict, which they dared not hope would be one of not guilty. When it was announced, a deep cry of anguish escaped them, and 'Oh, pray, forgive him,' was the only plea offered in his behalf. They clung fondly about his neck, and though he was stamped as a felon, and his character black with his crimes, yet to those loving children it was pure and spotless."

Culpeper County Items.
The Democracy of Culpeper, are requested to meet at the Court House, on Thursday, for the purpose of selecting a candidate to represent the county in the next Legislature.
Two small farms of Julius M. Hunt, lying 6 or 8 miles North of this place, were sold on Thursday last. One of 81 acres was purchased by Mr. Apperson at $17.50 per acre. The other containing 85 acres, was purchased by Mrs. J. M. Hunt, at $10, per acre.
Mr. Edmund L. Taylor has shown us a canoe—bickory, surmounted with buckhorn—one hundred and eight years (14). It is marked "Wm. Robertson 1750," and is, consequently, 20 years older than our independence.

By reference to our announcement column it will be seen that John W. Bell is a candidate for the House of Delegates at the ensuing election. Mr. Bell is a true and tried democrat.

The House and lot advertised by Mrs. Thompson, to be sold, on yesterday, was offered, and taken in at $5,100.—Blue Ridge Republican.

20 FIRKINS LARD AND BUTTER, in store and for sale by PERRY & PENNYBACKER.

LOCAL ITEMS.

CHRISTMAS DAY was comparatively a quiet one—there being no thills, less noise and firing of guns, pistols, and powder crackers, than usual on such an occasion. Divine Service was held in several of the churches—some of which were appropriately and beautifully decorated with evergreens. Many happy reunions of families and friends took place, and, altogether, the holiday was a very agreeable one, generally. The Police and Watch on Friday and Saturday nights had but few cases to interfere with—and there was but one commitment to the Watch House, from Friday night to Monday morning—Christmas, every year, will become, we hope, more and more a day for sober, rational enjoyment, the meeting of friends, the cultivation of the kinder feelings of our nature, and thanksgiving to the Almighty for the Christian dispensation.

ROBERTY.—Henry Watson and Rachel Watson, free negroes, were arrested by officers Warner and Jefferson, on Friday evening last, on the charge of stealing a box containing $70 from the residence of Mr. A. J. Hall, in the Third Ward. Upon being examined before the Mayor on Saturday, the woman acknowledged the theft and they were both committed to jail for trial at the January term of the County Court, the man as an accessory. Twenty dollars of the money has been recovered.

ANOTHER.—Two men named Patrick Doyle and Frank Lovejoy were arraigned before the Mayor yesterday morning, charged with stealing a silver watch from one John Schwaab, on Christmas morning, at the drinking saloon adjoining the depot of the Alexandria and Washington Railroad.—They were held until to-day for a further examination.

RECOVERY OF STOLEN GOODS.—We learn that two of the dresses which were stolen from the house of Mrs. Douglas, on Cameron street, on Wednesday night last, have been recovered by officer Warner, in Washington, where they had been sold by the parties who committed the robbery. On account of the sickness of one of the women arrested in this city, the examination which was to have taken place yesterday, has been postponed until her health will permit; in the mean time efforts are being made to procure further testimony in this city and Washington. Mary Berry, Lucy Henry, and a man named Carter, all colored, and formerly of this place, have been arrested in Washington, charged with receiving the goods, knowing they were stolen, and committed to jail to await a requisition from the Governor of Virginia.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—We learn that an accident occurred on the Virginia Central Railroad on Friday last, from the breaking of an axle, by which one car was thrown from the track and another so much broken as to render it useless. Fortunately, no one was injured. The passengers were taken into the baggage car and reached Richmond four minutes ahead of the schedule time.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—From Messrs. Jas. Entwistle & Son, and George E. French, we have received copies of the January number of Harper's Magazine—a very interesting number.—Contents: The Panama Railroad; The people of the Red River; Quebec; Only a woman's hair; Our Christmas party; Hints on self-culture; An American in Japan, in 1858; A song for New Year's Eve; a continuation of the Virginians; and a great variety of other attractive reading matter, with illustrations.

AN ALEXANDRIA CLERGYMAN.—Rev. J. Robert Fulton, a native of this place, preached two very able and eloquent sermons, at St. Mary's Church, on Sunday last, much to the gratification of large congregations, including many who had been neighbors and friends of his parents. Mr. F., though still quite a young man, fills, with much credit, the chair of Rhetoric at Georgetown College.

FUNERAL.—The remains of Captain Ezekiel Jones, Jr., were escorted to the Cemetery of the Methodist Church, on Sunday afternoon, by the San Fire Company, of which he was for a number of years an active member. The coffin was placed upon the Horse Carriage, which was appropriately decorated, and drawn by the members of the company. The bells of the Relief and Friendship Fire Companies tolled as the procession passed.

LIBRARY LECTURE.—The Rev. E. Yates Reese, D. D., will lecture this evening at the Lyceum Hall, as will be seen in another column. The subject: "An Evening with the Female Poets;" no less than the distinguished reputation of the Lecturer, will, doubtless, attract an audience worthy of our city.

A CHRISTMAS GIFT.—One of our King street dry goods merchants, received on Christmas morning, through the Post office, in an envelope, from "a friend," $500 in bank notes, as a Christmas Gift.

SALES TO-DAY.—For sales of valuable real estate to take place to-day, see advertisements in the auction columns of this morning's Gazette.

REMANDED TO VIRGINIA.—John McConn, charged with grand larceny committed at the White-house, in Virginia, and now in jail in this city, has been remanded to that State on a requisition from Governor Wise, to be tried for said crime in the Criminal Court at Richmond. Officer A. E. L. Reese is the officer entrusted with his conveyance to Richmond.—Wash. Star.

Mr. Robinson, Agent of the Manassas Gap Railroad, at Broad Run Station, died suddenly yesterday morning.

3000 LBS. COUNTRY BACON, just received and for sale by PERRY & PENNYBACKER.

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.

Later from Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 26.—The steamship Tonnessee, from Vera Cruz on the 22d, has arrived. The news is not of a decisive character.

The "Progress" speaks in high terms of President Buchanan's management, and thinks the position he has taken in regard to Mexico, will induce the European Powers to recede from their present position. It also thinks that the Liberals will reap advantage from the attitude assumed at Washington, and may prevent the necessity of establishing posts at Chihuahua and Sonora.

Zolozaga is still in the city of Mexico, but is prepared for flight. Gen. Marquez had been defeated by Delgado.

The archbishop refuses to advance Zolozaga more money on account of the church. A triumvirate is proposed.

Five French and three Spanish ships of war are at Sacrifices.

The Saratoga and another American sloop-of-war were seen off Vera Cruz.

One hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars in silver was found in the vault of Minister Forsyth's house.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 27th.—The steamer Metropolis from Pittsburgh, for New Orleans, with 500 tons of freight ran ashore in a fog on Sunday morning, and sunk immediately. The boat was broken in two pieces, and the cargo, valued at over $100,000, was lost.—All persons on board were saved.

St. Louis, Dec. 27.—The overland mail has arrived. Its dates have been anticipated.

The New Pension Bill.
The impression prevails generally, among those around us best informed on such matters, that the Senate will not pass Mr. Sawyer's bill pensioning the surviving officers and soldiers of the war of 1812, that triumphed in the House last week. The condition of the Treasury—unprepared as that is to stand the drain of fifteen millions of dollars per annum to grow, in the first year, out of its enactment, and probably twenty millions annually afterwards, of course has much to do with the current disinclination of Senators to pass the bill.—Wash. Star.

The sheriff in New York on Saturday sold a large amount of city property to pay the rest of the Lower claim, which remained unsatisfied after the auction of the municipal pictures some time ago for $5,000.—Very few persons were in attendance, and Mr. Lowie himself and Moses Taylor were the only bidders. The property sold consisted principally of wharves, piers and slips and brought $178,520. Mr. Lowie's claim against the city was $198,000 which, with some $20,000 interest, makes the sum due about $228,000, which is covered by the sales already made in his behalf. The property which he bid off at such a low figure yesterday is probably worth more than a million of dollars.

AGENTS FOR THE UNION INDIA RUBBER COMPANY.—GUTTA PERCHA, CHAITS, CAPS, BOOTS, AND CLOAKS, SILK, Alpaca, Sables and Cotton Cloths, Boots and Cloaks. Leggings, Covers with Hoods, etc. of all BRUSHES, likewise has just received a handsome assortment of SLEIGHS, for boys and infants, Willow Chairs with Tables, Willow Cradles and Wagons, small Wheelbarrows—a variety of Willow and fancy Baskets, also, many articles useful for housekeeping.
